

The Downtown Toronto Human Services and Justice Coordinating Committee
(DT- HSJCC)
Presents
An Evening Panel Session
On

THE CANNABIS ACT: YOUTH, MENTAL HEALTH AND PUBLIC SAFETY?

PANEL

Mary Birdsell - Justice for Children and Youth

The Honourable Justice Marion Cohen - Ontario Court of Justice

Carol Shirliff-Hinds - PPSC Public Prosecution Service of Canada

Dr. Sharon Cirone, Family Physician in focused practice addictions and mental health

Learning Objectives:

- Overview of the Cannabis Act and related amendments to federal and provincial legislation
- Discussion of the anticipated impact of the Act on the justice system and community resources
- Identify and discuss the relationships between youth, mental health and marijuana
- Discuss ethical implications of representing youth clients in the context of mental health and marijuana use

When: Wednesday, February 21, 2018

Where: Toronto City Hall, Council Chamber

Time: 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m. (Light dinner will be provided from 6:00 – 6:30 p.m.)

We are asking for a minimum $10 donation to help fund the dinner

This program contains 15 minutes of Professionalism Content.

This program is eligible for 1.25 (1 hour 15 mins) substantive credit.

Registration is limited to 100 and will be on first come basis.

To register please contact: Domenica Dileo at domenica.dileo@rogers.com

Regards,

Domenica Dileo

HSJCC Coordinator