4. Round Table Updates Provincial/Regional/Local <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Point In Time – Due to a lack of funding there is a shortage of Youth Probation Officers = Lack of Supervision.. Only two Youth Probation Officers in Lindsay. There’s an increase in clients reoffending; Reoffending breach after breach. Open House at Youth Hub soon (February). All services are available. b. Heatbank/Transportation- Once a month on the Wednesday Minden Court date, Marty’s will drive only those people attending court, leaving at 9:15am from Haliburton to Minden Court, and return, leaving Minden 3pm. Space for 6, first come first serve basis. Funded by HSJCC, costing approx. $1000/yr. c. Community Legal Clinic – d. Court- FLIC Family Law Information Centre. Tuesdays and Thursdays open in Bracebridge, for FREE Legal Information. Caseload is becoming more female clients because they are victimized by drug criminals from outside the county. Getting a Legal Aid Lawyer, the process 1-800-is a very long. Now in Minden when meeting with Duty Counsel, there is a woman in the back of the Court House to represent Legal 	All	10min

Aid to get a certificate. Duty Counsel sends an email to the woman who sees the referral request from Duty Counsel. For Legal Aid, direct your client to her after Duty Counsel. Most clients use to be in their 40's, now more people are born in the 1990's are Legal Aid clients, due to opioids. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> e. John Howard- Clients need help completing the process for Legal Aid, because they do not know the next steps required to complete the process. They need a number, then Duty Counsel, then a Legal Aid Certificate. Employment Services- Changes coming after March. Tendering Process was international. To be combined under one Entity-Lead Org, then sub-divide services. ODSP , OW combining f. Homelessness- There are people who need to be out of their place by May, because the cottagers want to return to their cottage. People renting have nowhere to go, especially if on OW. They can only afford to rent a single room, which is $800 a month in Minden right now A possible solution; Home Share. Ie) If not home all day and need a pet sitter, don't say free board, charge $100/mnth at least to get a good tenant. g. Adult Protective Services/OPP- An increase in clients with Developmental Disability (DSO). There is a new After Hours phone line for use by Police Officers, for an At Risk Client, which can't wait until the next business day. h. YWCA- Very busy. A lot of clients with brain injury caused by strangulation, sexual interactions i. Mental Health-Andrew and Bev are Raising Awareness about Homelessness at OPP Shift Change, in an Allegation situation (at the time of arrest), ask the Officer to scratch out the standard line "no contact order", so the person does not become homeless. Instead, write "don't go by (attend) that unit# at that address. j. Brain Injury(clients 18yrs-65yrs) –Problems in this County, clients in need of housing, and transportation in general. Age 50yrs & up males, are the majority of the clients. The opioid crisis cause an increase in clients in need, due to brain injury
