|---------------------|---|
|                     | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• As of last week, there are now two new branches: 1) Mental Health and Addiction Programs Branch 2) Policy Branch. A note that the team Teams within each branch remain intact.</li> </ul> Ragaven shared insights on OHTs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• In May interested potential Ontario Health Teams sent in self assessments. The MOH received over 250 assessments.</li> <li>• 31 OHTs have been invited to submit full applications which are due soon. It remains to be seen how many OHTs will be accepted.</li> <li>• The Ministry is taking a stewardship approach to this process - asking teams to tell them what they specifically need to serve their populations.</li> <li>• For those who are not successful, there is a commitment to work with these teams to get them to an OHT level.</li> </ul> Questions from the P-HSJCC: 1) As we moved away from LHINs, what will happen to the flow of funds? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• It will be a step wise process – in parallel will be figuring out how they handle LHINs and then what’s left in the community that still needs to be funded</li> </ul> 2) Where do MH&amp;A and justice fit into OHTs? What can we be doing to ensure that our population is served effectively? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Advice is to continue to stay connected with OHTs and be a part of those conversations. They are looking to hear more from the community as the process unfolds.</li> </ul> 3) Can you to speak to child and youth mental health? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Responsibility of C&amp;Y mental health transferred over to MOH. The plan is to maintain the lead agency model until the transformation is complete with OHTs. They want to ensure it is integrated across the lifespan. C&amp;Y mental health will be reflected in the budget moving forward.</li> </ul> 4) Are there no criteria as to what OHTs must include? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• OHT must provide primary care, home and community care, and mental health and addictions. It does not specify whether this includes child and youth care, mental health and justice clients etc.</li> <li>• Teams will be expected to begin to serve all populations – this will be an added piece as teams progress. Advice is to make sure the need in your community is known to those OHTs.</li> </ul> |

|   | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Of the teams that are accepted, they will be looking at who can be a champion in terms of best practices. They can then mentor other OHTs who are formed after them.</li> <li>• The North felt Indigenous partners were not at the table and did not feel meaningfully engaged. There needs to be a note of this moving forward.</li> </ul> 5) Police are struggling where to go to pitch their funding when they have a business plan with these health partners. Do they go to LHINs? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Advice is to continue to go to where you were before i.e. your LHIN</li> </ul> MOH's MH Strategy and Investments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The ministry engaged with stakeholders in community to guide the 2019 budget investments</li> <li>• The investments went into community mental health services, acute mental health beds, supportive housing and mental health and justice services</li> </ul> Follow up questions and comments from the table: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There is a large population of marginalized populations that will not be accessing services in the usual way through health care providers. We need to ensure it is not an afterthought.</li> <li>• There is a concern that those with substance use issues and cognitive impairments may not have access to services these need as the providers are not typically at the table. There needs to be a formal way for the non-health organizations to be involved.</li> <li>• It is not necessarily all about requesting funding – sometimes it is about changing legislation, cross ministry communication etc.</li> <li>• There is a lot of overlapping issues and changes in other ministries aside from mental health issues that will impact our clients i.e. changes to ODSP program, reduction in budget to LAO etc.</li> </ul> Is there some way that the P-HSJCC can help the Ministry with some of these challenges? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Yes, the ministry will continue to raise these concerns with their colleagues and share them with inter-ministerial tables. Please feel free to get in touch to share these concerns with the ministry.</li> </ul> |
| 6) Presentation: Survivors of Homicide Victims and Mental Health Project | Dr. Sharpe presented on her work with survivors of homicide victims and mental health: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The ripple effect on homicide violence is about 7-10 individuals impacted</li> <li>• Current Gaps: very limited research to ACB, 2SLGBTQIA+ and Indigenous survivors of homicide victims and their experiences, coping strategies, mental, physical and spiritual health and service utilization</li> </ul>  |

|-------------------------------------|---|
|                                     | Christine provided some preliminary survey results: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There were 87 responses from across the human services and justice sectors including ministry partners</li> <li>• Survey respondents cover most of Ontario</li> <li>• Most service providers serve ACB and Indigenous communities</li> <li>• The majority of respondents felt their organizations were not equipped to deal with survivors of homicide violence</li> <li>• Cultural trauma, culturally responsive practices etc. were identified by respondents as practices they would like to hear more about.</li> <li>• The majority of respondents indicated there is a need for more services that support diverse populations experiencing homicide violence.</li> </ul> Next steps for this work: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Present findings at upcoming P-HSJCC Conference</li> <li>• Develop a semi-structured interview guide</li> <li>• Conduct listening sessions across the province with service providers</li> </ul> Comments from the P-HSJCC: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• It was noted that there is an offender-victim overlap. Often perpetrators of violence are also victims themselves and have significant trauma. This must be capture in the approach to care.</li> <li>• There are some capacity challenges in the North West. It will be interesting to hear from service providers in the focus groups on what some of the unique challenges in that area.</li> </ul> |
| 7) Legal Aid Ontario Funding | Christine led a discussion on the impact of changes to LAO: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Criminal duty counsel will serve anyone in custody, but they can only serve legally and financially accepted clients who are out of custody.</li> <li>• LAO still has dedicated services in bail courts, however in other courts they will only have duty counsel if they are financially eligible.</li> <li>• If members have concerns on this, they should contact AJ as the rep from Legal Aid Ontario. They should also check for updates on LAO’s website.</li> <li>• Legal Aid Ontario is currently doing a modernization review. They are hoping to get input from this table during consultations.</li> </ul>   |

|---|--|
|   | Discussion: How can Local and Regional HSJCCs ensure the changes to LAO funding do not negatively impact clients? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Niagara had a meeting specifically on the LAO issue. They decided to have service providers that were in the courts track some of these cases to provide anecdotal evidence on the impacts of the changes.</li> <li>• Suggestion to other committees is to bring this up at their tables and have discussions on this.</li> <li>• There was a suggestion to look at court diversion workers. They may need to take on some of these duties if duty counsel services are lacking.</li> <li>• It is likely that clients will start turning to other justice professionals for support to help navigate the system and connect them to as much services as possible. These individuals cannot give legal advice but can give procedural advice.</li> <li>• It is important to continue tracking these cases anecdotally.</li> </ul> What next steps can the Provincial HSJCC take to ensure our clients receive adequate legal representation? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Develop an advocacy letter</li> <li>• Emphasize the cost savings for this government.</li> <li>• There was a suggestion to draft a joint letter for our partner ministries that outline our top concerns. By addressing these things together, we encourage ministries to work together, breaking down silos.</li> </ul> Issues the P-HSJCC would like to include in letter: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Housing, LAO changes, ODSP changes, protecting funding for our justice involved populations, focus on addictions with MOH.</li> </ul> ACTION: The Secretariat to draft a letter to Deputy Ministers of our partner ministries highlighting the most pressing issues that are impacting our clients. |
| 8) Community Justice Centres Update | Delia Greco and Michael Callahan from the Criminal Law Division at MAG provided an update on Justice Centres: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There will be 4 centres will be operating across the province: Kenora, London, two in Toronto</li> <li>• Each location will be conducting pilot projects each with a specific focus</li> <li>• They are engaging in each community (not a needs assessments) to design the pilots.</li> <li>• They are looking for approvals in October and for potential locations. The aim is to launch these pilots sometime in late fall, early winter</li> <li>• When in the implementation stage, MAG will report back to the table.</li> </ul>  |

| 9) Older Adults and the Justice System | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The launch date for the older adults project is set for October 1st. Kicking this work off with a webinar</li> <li>• The navigational guidebook to follow shortly after this.</li> <li>• The Local TO magazine is working on a story on older adults and the justice system featuring our guidebook.</li> <li>• Release of pamphlets for older adults is scheduled for some time in 2020</li> </ul>  |
| 10) Issue Management Session:          | Stephen McCammon presented on privacy, mental health and information sharing in a correctional setting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Privacy is so critical to collaboration as it can help sectors partner to understand their purposes and align with one another.</li> <li>• A key piece of the IPC's work is to provide guidance to institutions and health custodians on new programs and policies.</li> <li>• Stephen noted that FIPPA and PHIPA prevail over other statutes.</li> <li>• There is a lag in information sharing when someone is first admitted into correctional facilities with regards to mental health information. Individuals may be held on bail, short sentences, and MAG is not sharing this information fast enough.</li> </ul> Questions: Can corrections be better informed when making decision such as using segregation if they had access to a psychiatric report? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• There is not a legal barrier for correctional staff to receive this report from the courts to add to their files. The personal information must comply with the rules of FIPPA. Must put its use in context and whether it is considered useful when making decisions.</li> <li>• It is so important to have the appropriate assessments done in a timely matter so that decisions on where an individual is placed within the facility is based on their needs and the safety of the institutions.</li> <li>• Consent-based collection of information is always the way to go. The law recognizes that there are other avenues for personal health information and health information other than consent.</li> </ul> Section 40 in PHIPPA is particularly helpful: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>➤ A Health Care Information Custodian may disclose Personal Health Information about an individual where necessary to reduce significant risk of serious bodily harm to a person or group of persons or to assist a custodial institution in making decision concerning the following:             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Arrangements for the provision of health care to the individual</li> </ul> </li> </ul> |

|  | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>The placement of the individual into custody, detention, release or discharge, including conditional release or discharge under acts including the Ministry of Correctional Services Act and the Criminal Code.</li> <li>It was noted that there needs to be some sort of protocol, MOU or policy developed for all of the ministries involved so that the right prep work can be done in making a request. The HIC must have clear sense of their latitude and what shapes that discretion.</li> <li>Aside from knowing privacy guidelines, there is a piece on relationship building and alignment between organizations and ministries.
