Rosanna Giancristiano is the Director of Court Operations for Toronto Region in Court Services Division. Rosanna has 30+ years experience in Court Services Division and currently oversees both the Ontario and Superior Court of Justice in Toronto. Rosanna previously held the position of Manager of Court Operations for Old City Hall and College Park and Manager of Business Support for the previous director. Rosanna's portfolio currently includes overseeing Toronto Region CSD staff, managers and operational processes, as well as providing support to the new Toronto courthouse and Toronto Region bail centre projects, which includes overseeing all the NTC/TRBC CSD operational committees and being the co-chair of four of the committees (trial scheduling, operational, mental health and operational advisory). The committees are designed to review and provide feedback on many issues which collectively affect justice participants in the NTC/TRBC.

Anthony Lue Tam is the manager of Capital Projects + Strategic Initiatives in the Facilities Management Branch of the Ministry of the Attorney General. He leads a team of Architects for the ministry in maintaining and administering the Architectural Design Standards for Courthouses in the Province of Ontario, and developing best practices for associated security, audio-visual technology, accessibility and wayfinding. He also provides oversight of the ministry's new courthouse planning, design and implementation projects and has been involved in the P3 courthouses since Durham Courthouse and now currently the new Toronto Courthouse.
