

Frontline Workers Training Series

Our Freedom Is Bound Together:
Supporting the Release, Transition, and Care of People Impacted by Incarceration During COVID-19

In Partnership with Nikki Knows and Project OASIS

This online training opportunity is to build the capacity of front-line workers, community-based service providers, and informal supporters (such as family, friends, community members) to support the release, transition, and care of young people who are being held in and released

Free 4 part Training Series on Zoom

Session #1: Bail 101 - Youth

Friday June 5th 2020

2:30 pm to 4:00 pm

Session #2: Bail 101 - Adult

Friday June 5th 2020

5:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Session #3: Other Release Remedies

Tuesday June 9th 2020

5:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Session #4: Current Needs: Ways and Resources to Supports

Thursday June 11th 2020

5:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Session # 3

Other Release Remedies

Building on the Bail 101s, this session will cover other remedies available for early and/or conditional release (youth and adult) that can be strategically applied for during COVID-19. This session will also discuss ways in which community can approach systemic advocacy efforts for the release of people who are incarcerated during this pandemic.

Tuesday June 9th
5:00 pm to 6:30 pm

Register Now !

https://www.eventbrite.com/e/session-3-other-releaseremedies-tickets-107500137806

Nikki Knows is a Toronto-based grassroots initiative that builds capacity for social and systems change in and around the Canadian justice system.

Led and coordinated by Nikki Knows, in partnership with community, justice, and government partners, Project OASIS (Ongoing and Supportive Integrated Services) is an Integrated wraparound pilot project currently being developed to support people in adult provincial custody, pre-release through post-release.

@Youth.Toronto @TorontoTYES

@YouthToronto @TorontoTYES