

SDG and PR and Akwesasne

Revised Proposal Request: January 7, 2021

At its January 7th, 2021 HSJCC meeting, members approved that $3000 be allocated from the 2020-2021 fiscal budget to provide assistance to clients of the HSJCC SDG and PR and Akwesasne local membership who present themselves in an emergency situation and do not have resources to meet the emergency needs such as transportation, meal and seasonal appropriate clothing.

The funds will be distributed equally amount HSJCC member organizations who request to receive funds for their clients.

Interested organizations are invited to send their expression on interest by email to Sandra Langevin slangevin@eohu.ca by January 31, 2021 and include the following information to allow CMHA Champlain East to issue the funds by cheque: Organization Name, Contact Person and Mailing Address.

Member organizations will be responsible for the management of these funds as intended in the proposal and will provide a report with supporting receipts prior to March 31, 2021 and forwarded to Joanne Ledoux-Moshonas, HSJCC Co-chair at moshonasi@cmha-east.on.ca.

Details to be included in the report:

- Number of clients served?
- How were the funds utilized?
- Provide an account of the expenses and report any unspent funds and include supporting receipts
- Briefly describe how these funds impacted the clients?
