Rosshane Vignarajah is a public servant who enjoys working on projects involving public and stakeholder engagement, large-scale change, and human-centred design. She has held several positions across the youth and adult correctional system at the corporate level, and is currently the Manager of the Community Reintegration Unit at the Ministry of the Solicitor General. The Community Reintegration Unit is a team of multi-disciplinary subject matter experts that are working with partners across the justice sector, other ministries, and the community to design, develop, and support the delivery of a standardized and person-centred approach to Community Reintegration across the province.

This presentation will:

- Share some of the feedback received through local and provincial engagements with frontline staff and community partners; and
- Provide an overview and update on the implementation of several of the ministry's Community Reintegration initiatives.

When: Thursday, February 24, 2022

Time: 12:00 p.m. – 1:00 p.m.
