Year in Review – Emerging Issues

Emerging Issues (identified during January COR meeting)

- Crisis Services in the city and in rural communities
- Recruitment & Staff Retention
- Psychological stress and burnout in the workplace (compassion fatigue)
- Limited resources in rural communities to response to meet social/health needs
- Persistent Absenteeism among youth in the region
- Support for individuals 12-17 who are Crown Wards and may be accessing education in City (Thunder Bay, Kenora)
- Systemic Racism
- Kenora and Thunder Bay are "Hubs" for the Northwest (not providing level of support people need when accessing service in City)
- Lack of sustainable funding for collaborative cross-sectoral initiatives such as Situation Tables, Joint-Mobile Responses, Mobile Integration Teams, etc. (Developmental Services)
- Increase in organized crime (ie. Gang activity, human trafficking)
- No medical withdrawal management in the Northwest region
- Homelessness, safe and affordable housing for people with complex needs

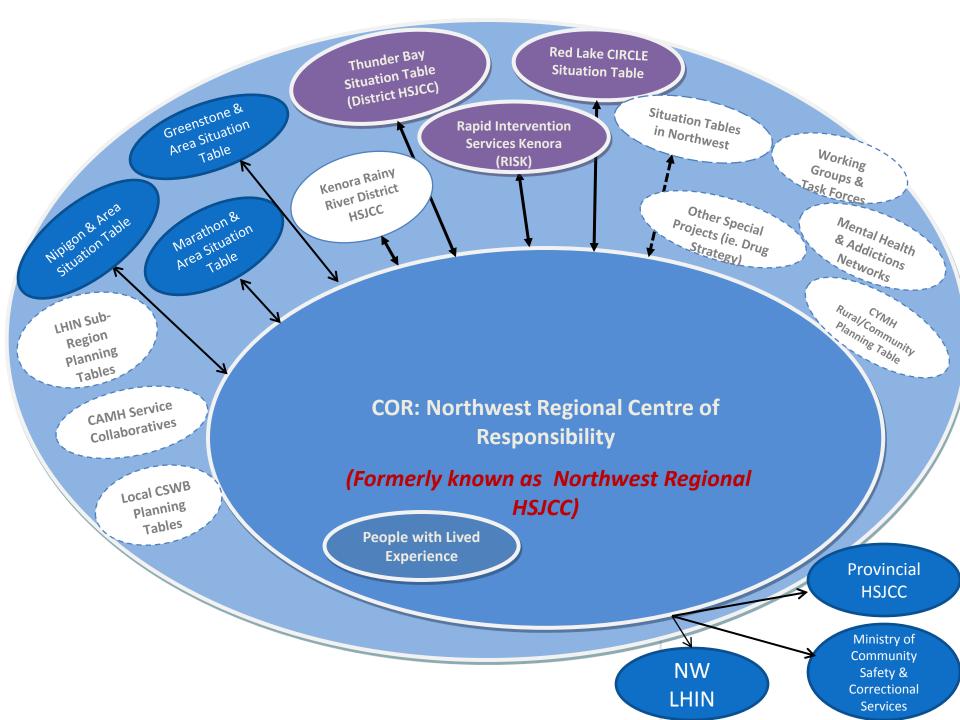

Year in Review – What's different?

- Newly elected Co-Chair (Justice/Health/District perspectives)
- Alignment with emerging Situation Tables and development of partnerships with Situation Table/Steering committee members of existing Situation Tables (Sioux Lookout, Dryden, Fort Frances)
- Greater participation and engagement from partners in the District
 - 15+ new members of the COR
 - Virtual Meetings (Equitable meeting experience), Travel Subsidies
 - Greater engagement with the KRRD-HSJCC
- Larger Network as a result of new partnerships
 - 250+ members of Community Mobilization Network
- Stronger connection to Provincial HSJCC
 - Executive committee membership
- Coordinator position to support the work of the COR
